

Learn as you read

Cut out each of the little monsters and stick them on lollipop sticks to use when dressing.

Cut out the clothing and use to help prompt your little monster to get dressed.

Matching game

Can your little monster match the monster to the clothing in the book?

Learning to match non-identical pairs is a skill which will help children when they are learning to read, to better connect letters and words with their meanings

If you don't want to remove the following pages from this book, you can download a copy from my website www.intriguingauthorpa.com/authors/sarah

