

Learn as you read

Cut out the sheep and the pictures overleaf to play a game as you read encouraging your child to count and name colours. Use this to help your child understand grouping numbers and categorising into different groups according to their similarities and differences.

If you don't want to remove the following pages from this book, you can download a copy from my website www.intriguingauthorpa.com/authors/sarah

